Excerpt from The Case of the Jews, in the Matter of the Founder of Christianity: As Conceived by Viscount Amberley, Extracted From His an Analysis of Religious Belief; No Jewish author before Graetz has delineated the life of Jesus as he conceived it from the point of view afforded by his religion. It is owing to this enforced silence, for fear of punishment for blasphemy, that so much rancour has existed against them for nearly nineteen centuries. The late Viscount Amberley, in his remarkable work, entitled An Analysis of Religious Belief, has presented their case in a light which, from youth, has always occurred to me, and no doubt to many others in thought.
