A survey et nature, and the observations of her beautiful proportions, first determined man to imitate the divine plan, and study symmetry and order. The Architect began to design; and the plans which he laid down, being improved by experience and time, have produced works which are the admiration of every age. The lapse of time, the ruthless band of ignorance, and the devastations of war have laid waste and destroyed many valuable monuments of antiquity, on which the utmost exertion of human genius have been employed. Even the Temple of Solomon, so spacious and magnificent, and constructed by so many celebrated artists, escaped not the unsparing ravages of barbarous force. The attentive ear recives the sound from the instructive tongue and the mysteries of Freemasonry are safely lodged in the repository of faithful breasts....
