Charles Sumner, of Massachusetts: Delivered in the Senate of the United States, May 31, 1872 The sundry civil appropriation bill coming up as unfinished business. Mr. Sumner moved to postpone indefinitely its consideration, and proceeded to review the report of the Committee on the Sale of Arms to French agents. Mr. Sumner then said: Mr. President: I have no hesitation in declaring myself a member of the Republican party and one of the straitest of the sect. I doubt if any Senator can point to earlier or more constant service in its behalf. I began at the beginning, and from that early day have never failed to sustain its candidates and to advance its principles. For these I have labored always by speech and vote, in the Senate and elsewhere, at first with few only, but at last as success began to dawn then with multitudes flocking forward. In this cause I never asked who were my associates or how many they would number. In the consciousness of right I was...
