It is hoped my countrywomen, generally eminent in virtue as in beauty, will cease to degrade themselves by such a silly and dangerous curiosity. If the Parisians will run after Moreau the conjuror, Mademoiselle Normand, and the Sibyl of the Chauss6e DAntin, d la bonne Tieure. The foretelling by cards is a mere fragment of the old geomancy, and is, if possible, more absurd than any other mode. A game at cards will afford a more rational amusement, without the fatal effects of disagreeable presciences. LESSON XXXI. MARRIAGE. In our club calculation is regarded as the chief of all the sciences, and a copy of Cockers Arithmetic always lies on the table. To calculate expenses and future contingencies is one of the most essential objects in life, and nothing can give a wise man more pain...
