Rosemarie MacCheyne lived from 1918 to 2008 and from the time she was around six years old, she began writing poetry, a talent that continued for the rest of her life. From 1925 until 1989, she wrote these poems with the hope of someday getting them published. Unfortunately, she didn't live to see that happen, but at long last, here is a collection of her best work, presented posthumously. You will find here, beautiful, inspirational poems about finding God's beauty, discovering the innermost feelings of a young girl in a wheelchair, longing to go skating with the other children, a soldier's lament, and a young woman's observations of life in general. We hope that you will enjoy reading these phenomenal poems as much as we did, and that it inspires you, leaving you with feelings of peace and solace.
